Rules and regulations

Each campsite has its own rules and regulations that are displayed at the reception. As a client you must comply with these regulations. Please note: pets are prohibited on some of our campsites (they are banned everywhere around the pools, sanitary facilities and restaurants). If dogs are allowed, they must be kept on a lead at all times. Ask the campsite for more information. Vaccination records may be requested at any moment. Maximum 1 pet allowed per accommodation. Dogs in the first or second category are not allowed.

Additional tents, vehicles or persons are not allowed without permission from the campsite. Due to safety and insurance reasons, the number

Wearing a bathing suit is mandatory in the pools (swimming shorts are not allowed), as well as wearing the campsite bracelet. Because we want to be sure that you are aware of any possible dangers, we ask you on arrival to sign a statement that you consent to the water park rules. Because of rules regarding hygiene, young children are required to wear swimming diapers. It is mandatory for children who cannot swim to wear inflatable armbands. Some water slides have specific conditions of use; this is the case for the Space Bowl, Twister, Tsunami and Crazy Cone. Contact the campsite for more information. For insurance reasons, day visitors are not allowed to access the water park.

Rental insurance

The tenants are obliged to take out insurance with an insurance company against the risks associated with their stay, namely: theft, loss or damage to personal property, or damage that is caused to the rented accommodation and furniture or the campsite, whether done intentionally or through negligence, by the tenant or any companions. Guests must be able to provide proof of this insurance and produce this proof on demand. Personal items, luggage, furniture, securities and vehicles are not insured against theft, loss or damage from any cause. If a bike is rented or loaned, customers are required to take out an insurance against theft, loss or damage. A deposit will be requested for each bike.
